

PHP penultimate hop popping

- It is used only for directly connected subnets or aggregate routes.
- It enables the Edge LSR to request a label pop operation from its upstream neighbors.
- It is requested through LDP using a special label value that is also called the implicit- null value.